Foreword

Out of the past Comes
The echo of today
Reverberating
Over the sounds
Of tomorrow.

No stream of life
Flows
Without the influence
Of its history.

Similarly,
No high school pageant
Moves across the stage
As it receives
Its final directions
Without a look
At the past Or without taking —

Parents

Somewhere inscribed between these lines are the names of parents. Somewhere drawn among these pictures are the faces of parents. It is to them, ALL THE PARENTS OF ARNOLD HIGH SCHOOL—past, present, and future, that this 1965 edition of the Arlion has been dedicated.

No barriers exist to admission into this great crowd of deserving people: tall or short, fat or thin, blonde or brunette, known or unknown, silent or talkative, shy or bold—no trait mars the image. Everyone has been included. Their love is constraining; their courage, empowering; their loyalty, endearing; and their perseverance, strengthening. Therefore, it is fitting and proper that they should receive this honor.

"I'll try, Mom!"

"Invite all parents!"

"Consider this, parents!"

"Bye, Mom!"

"The father and mother of an unnoticed family, who in their seclusion awaken the mind of one child and send him out prepared to profit by the conflicts of life, surpass in influence Napoleon breaking the world to his sway."

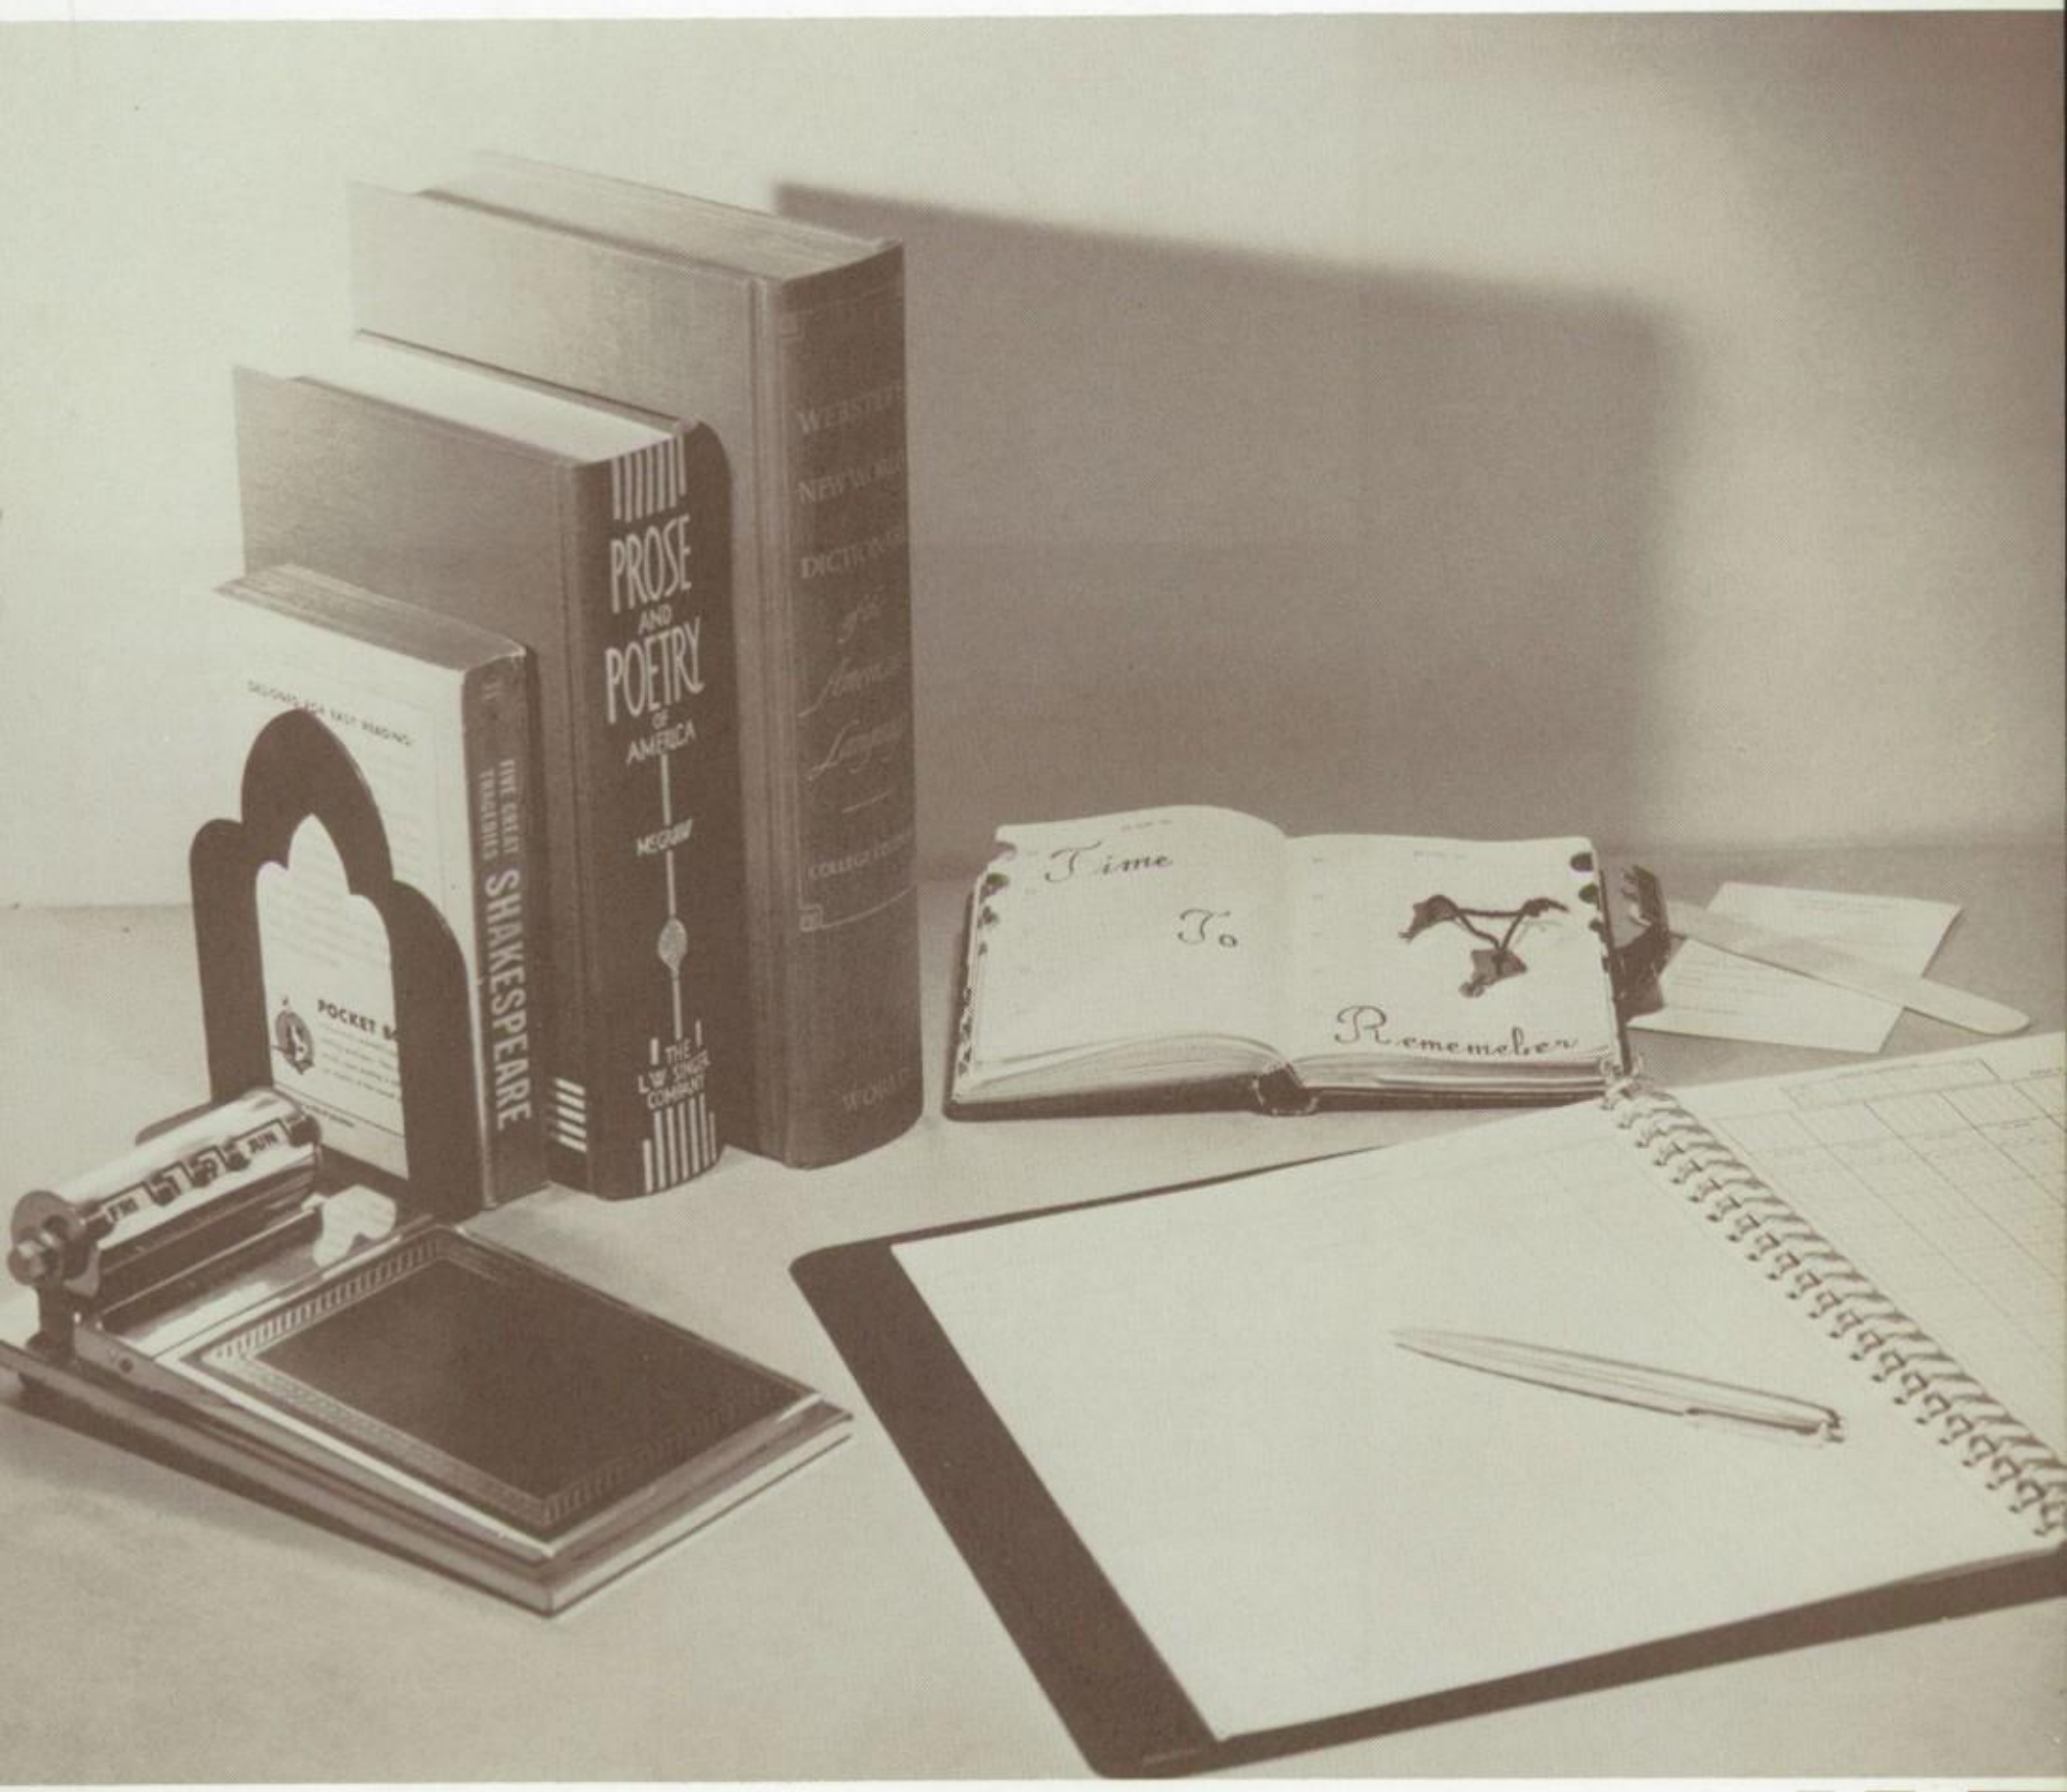
"Thanks, Dad!"

"More money, Dad!"

"Look, Dad!"

Editor's note: Purposely the pictures on the dedication pages have not been identified. Each Mom or Dad pictured there is the symbol of every other Mom or Dad of the students of Arnold High School.

Administrators and Teachers



"The goal here, remote though it may seem, is the fulfillment of every child's capacity, large or small, conventional or unique, swift or slow."

Experience Teaches

It is not enough to have books, or to know where to find facts when needed.
Practical wisdom for the purposes of life must be carried about and be ready for use at call.
It is not enough to have a fund laid up at home, but not a farthing in one's pocket.
One must carry about with him a store of the current coin of knowledge ready for exchange on all occasions; otherwise, he is helpless and lacking when the opportunity for action occurs.

The experience gathered from books is of the nature of learning; the experience gained from natural life is of the nature of wisdom.

A small store of the latter is worth vastly more than any stock of the former.

Wisdom Establishes

But where shall wisdom be found?
And where is the place of understanding?
Man knoweth not the price thereof;
neither is it found in the land of the living.
The depth saith, "It is not in me."
And the sea saith, "It is not with me."
It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.
It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx or the sapphire.
The gold and the crystal cannot equal it, and the exchange of it shall not be for fine gold.
No mention shall be made of coral, or of pearls; for the price of wisdom is above rubies.

Whence then cometh wisdom?
Or where is the place of understanding?

"Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding."

Education Enlightens

Education is a torch, enlightening the masses of the world, firing the imagination of man,
and feeding the flames of genius,
It gives wings to dreams,
and power to brawn and brain.

From out of the shadow of the past it comes, wearing the scars of struggle and the stripes of soil,
but bearing in triumph the wisdom of all ages.
Man, by it, holds dominion over earth, air, and sea.
It is the parent of progress, the creator of culture, and the determiner of destiny.

It is the hope of youth, the pride of adolescence, and the joy of age.
Its workshop is the school, where it stirs ambitions, stimulates ideals, and forges the keys for opening the door of opportunity.

School Calls

School is a new and different world.
Because it is a world of strange faces,
one enters it timidly.
After the first week it is a place of laughter, scuffling feet, and old friends.
It is listening, fascinated,
as the magic doors of storyland open.
It is a mystic moment of doing the impossible.
School is the joy of discovery, thrill of challenge;
a compliment for effort, criticism for error;
the sight of a goal, the acceptance of reward.
School is all of these, but much more!
It is the assembly of tomorrow's doctors, nurses, lawyers, teachers, fathers, mothers, and citizens of all trades.
It is the rungs of the ladder for today's assembly of eager scrubbed faces and toothless smiles, the steps toward the future which so hopefully belongs to them.

"Knowledge comes, but wisdom lingers."

Treasurer ..... Marlene Mautino

"Learning is wealth to the poor, an honor to the rich, an aid to the young, and a support and comfort to the aged.

"He who always seeks more light the more he finds, and finds more the more he seeks, is one of the few happy mortals who take and give in every point of time. The tide and ebb of giving and receiving is the sum of human happiness, which he alone enjoys who always wishes to acquire new knowledge, and always finds it."

"We'll switch for the fourth set."

Time for a rest.

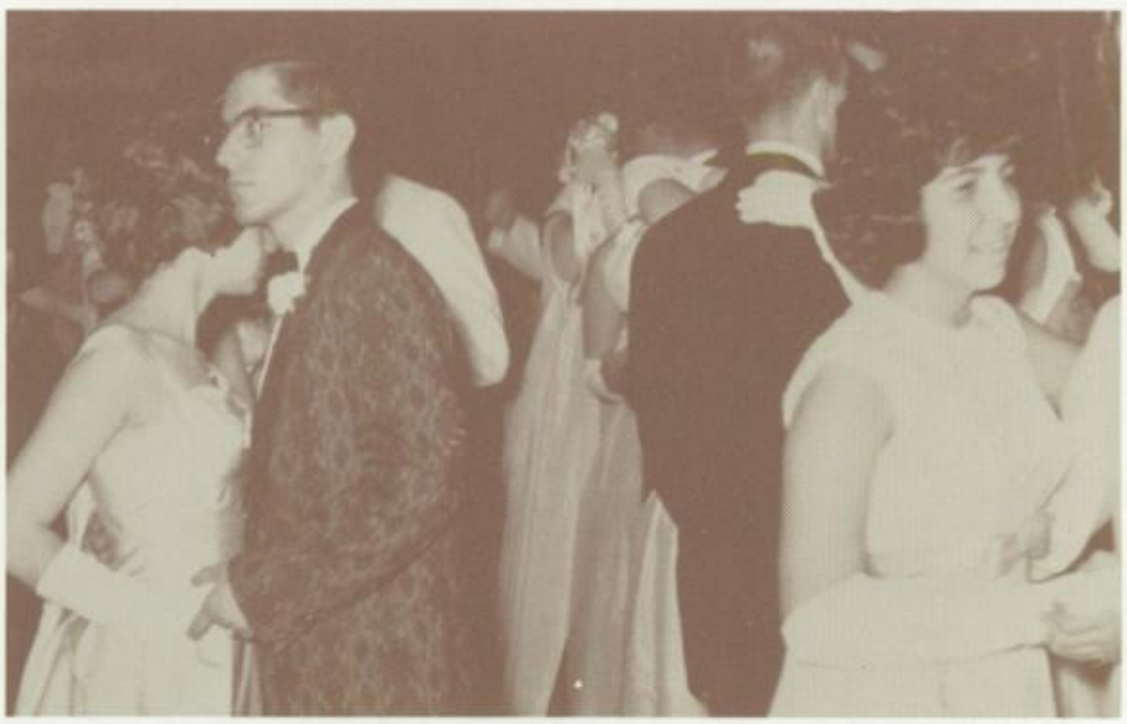
"Have you enjoyed it?"

"It's been a long day!"

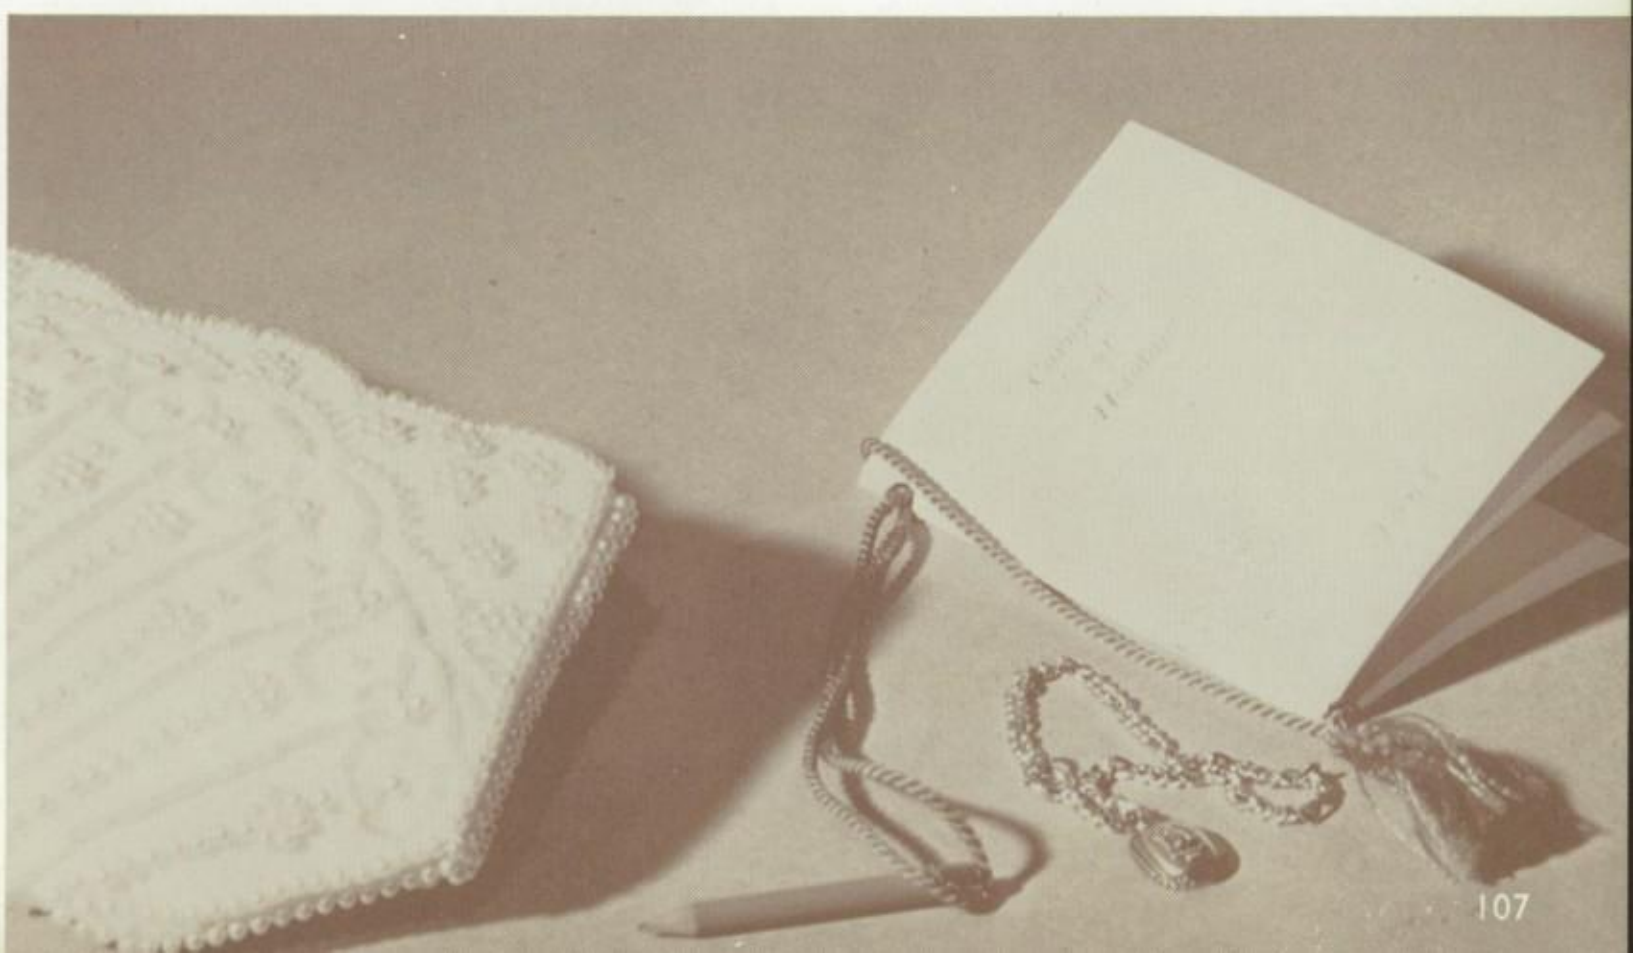
"May we serve you?"

"Smile, you're on Candid Camera."

This night should never end!

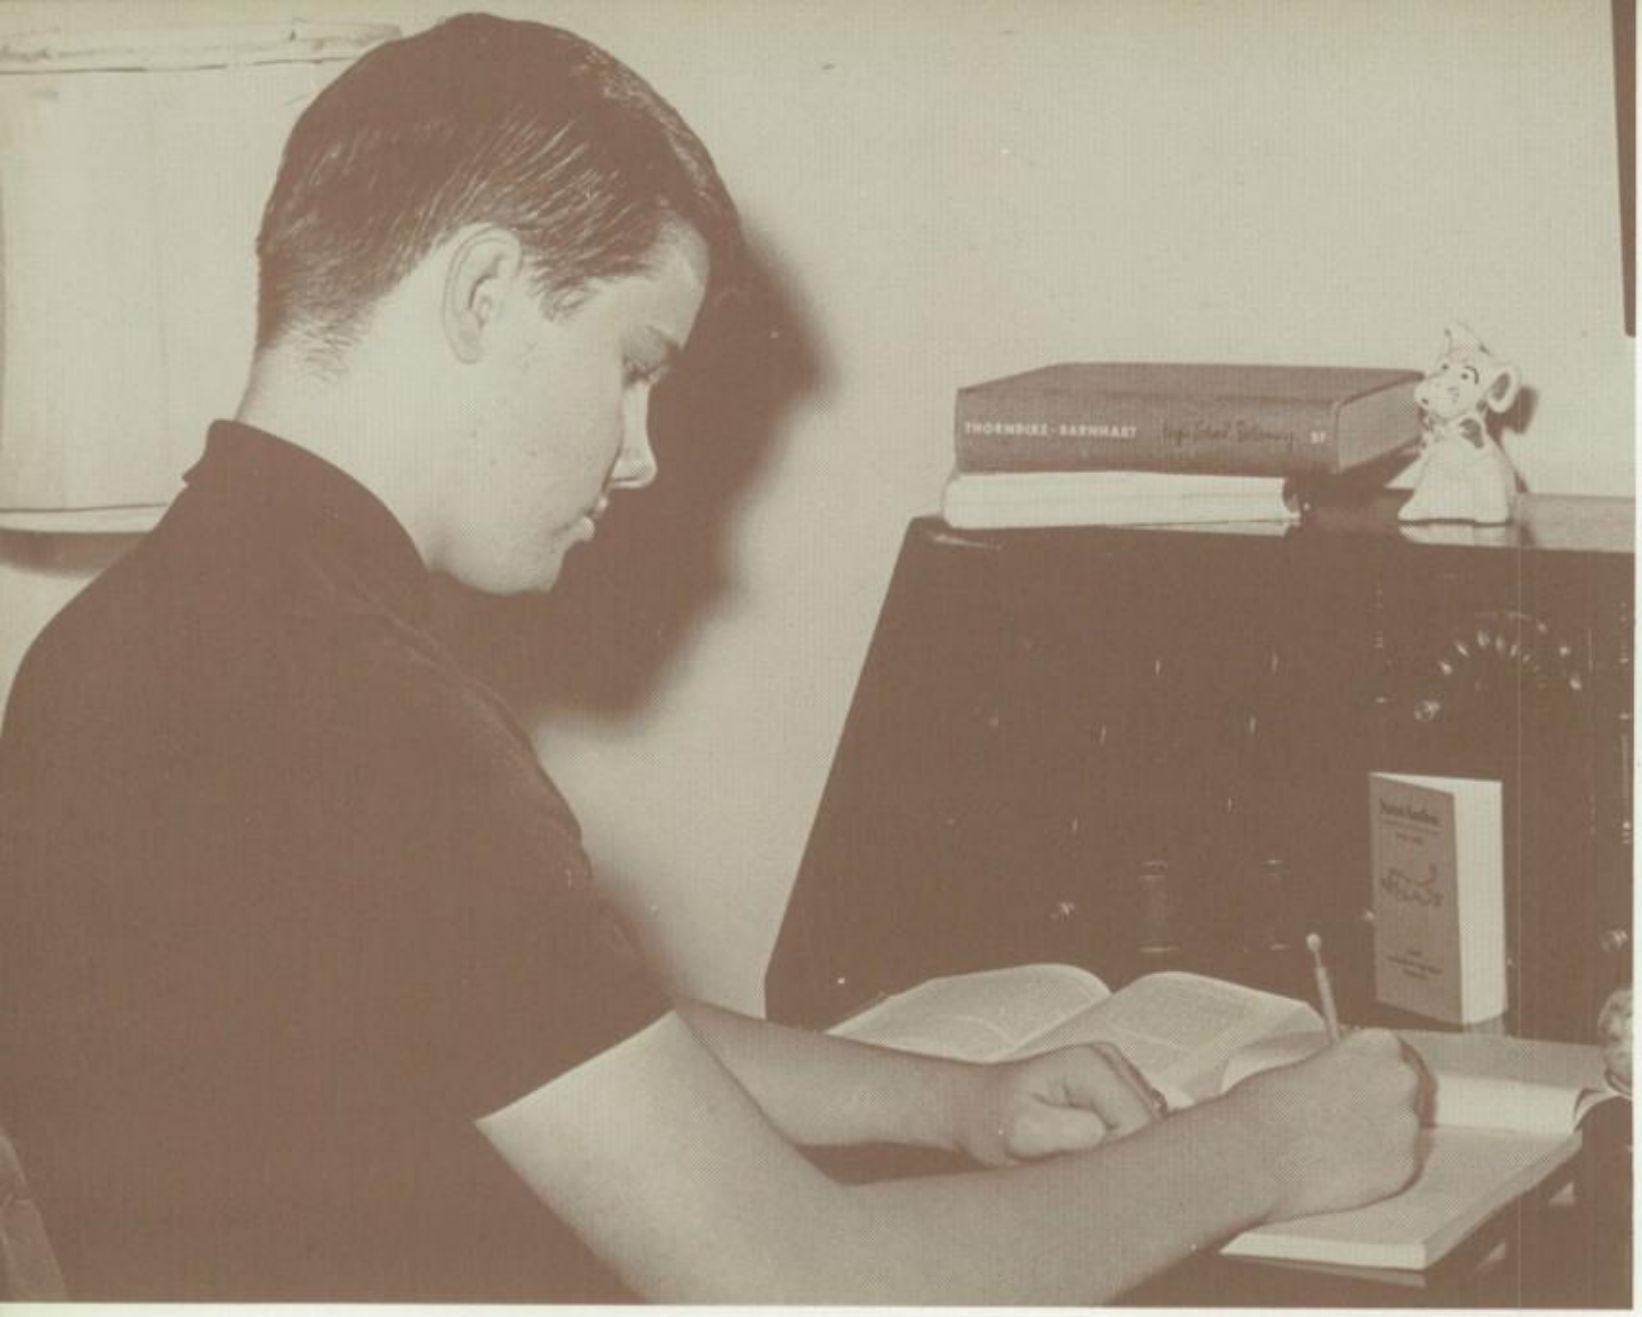


Enchanted evening



Nostalgia

. . . through each day and year.

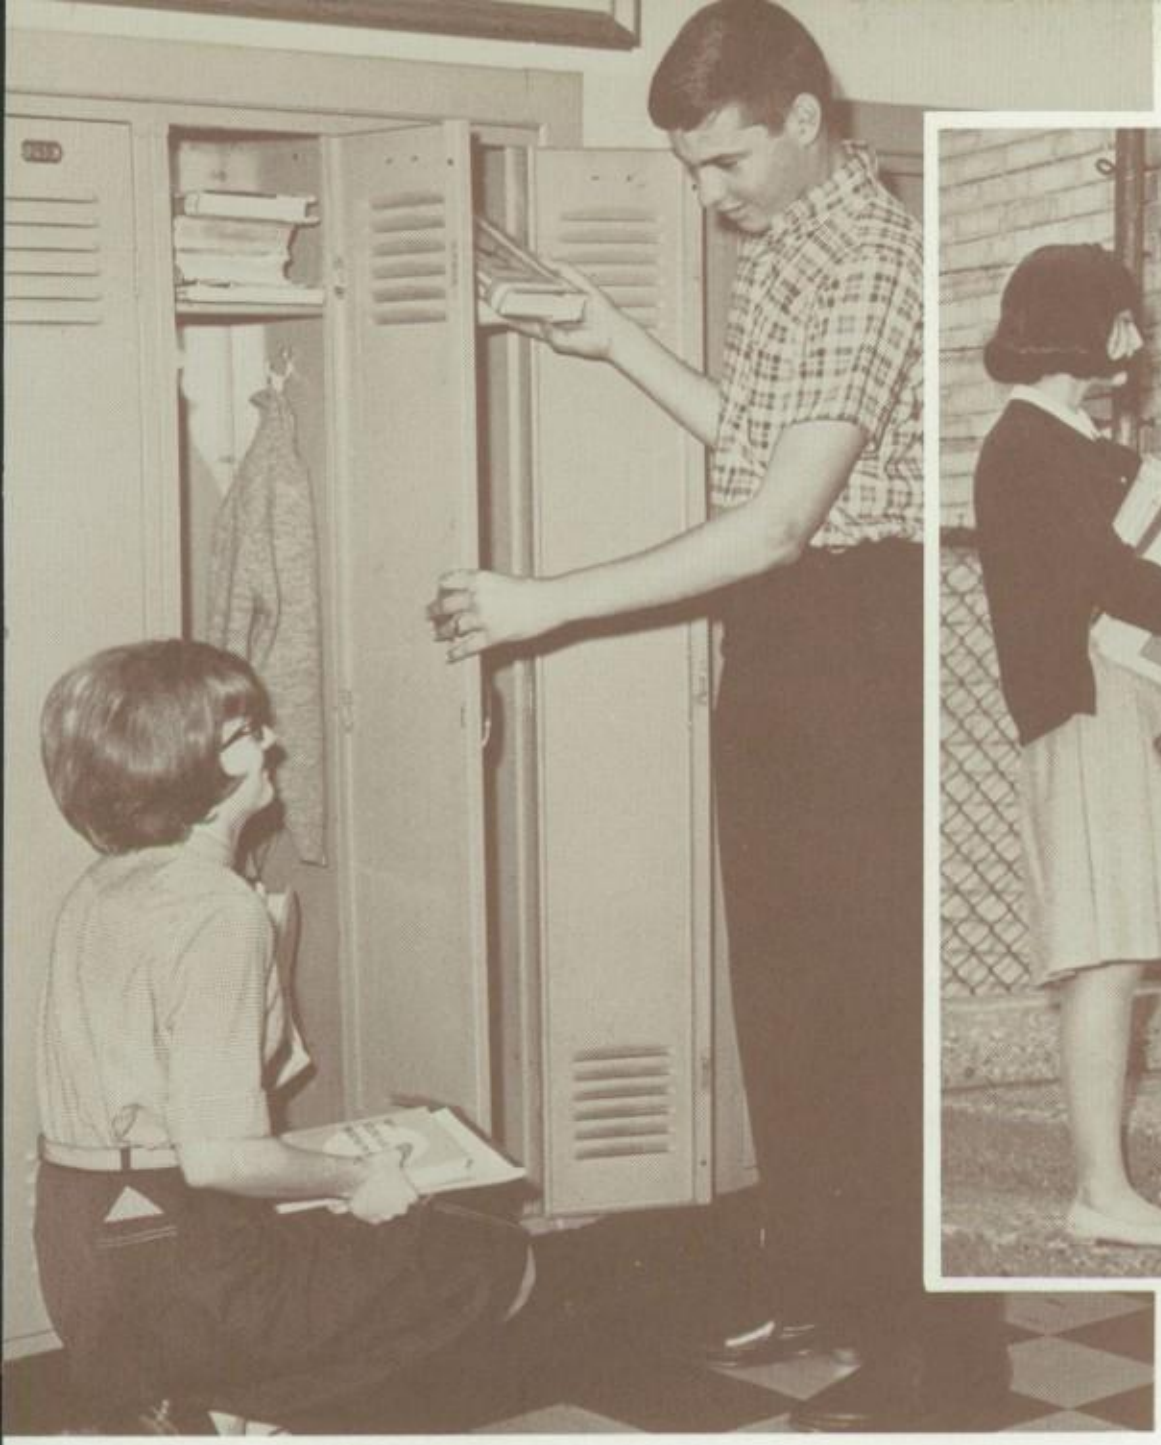


A hard day's nightwork!

"I always have physics for breakfast!"

Quiet! Geniuses at work.

"Does anyone have a free hand?"



"Things never seem to fit!"

"Maybe Mr. Tannas can help me!"

"Hey! Stop eating my lunch!"

"This is called spring vacation?"

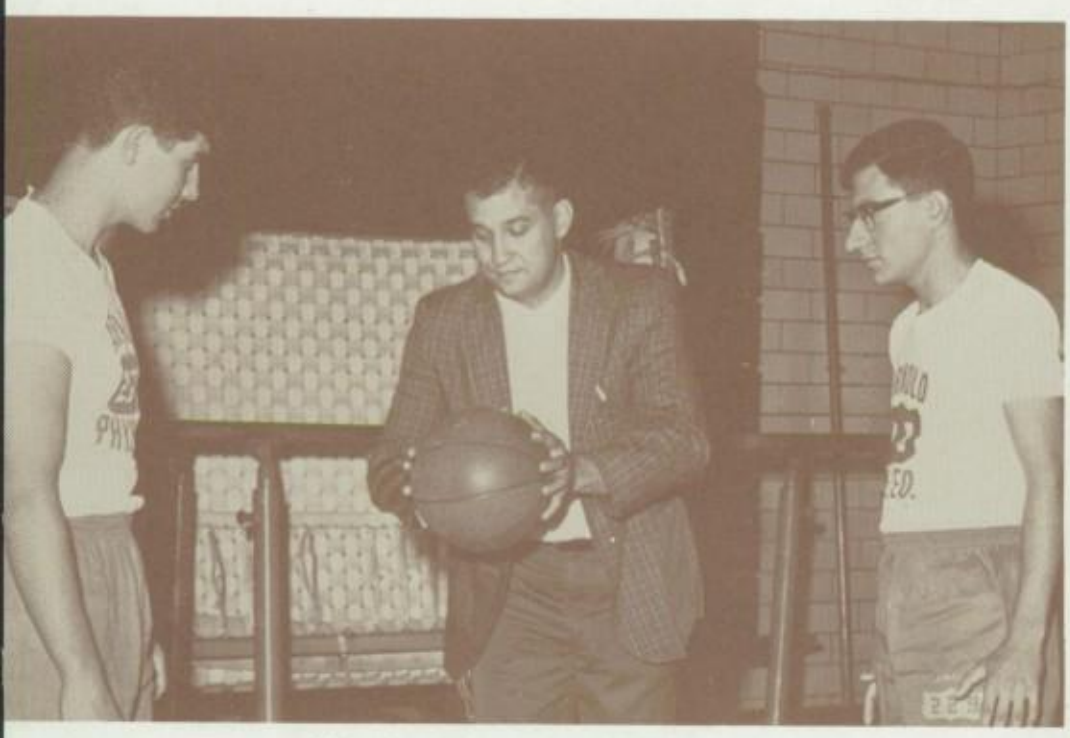
"Spell that again, please."

"Are your parents coming?"

"Boy, this is hard work!"

Practice makes perfect.

The time is here!



"So that's how it's done!"

"Let's see how much we've made."

"Now listen carefully!"

"See anything?"

"The codfish lays ten thousand eggs;
The homely hen lays one.
The codfish never cackles
To tell you what she's done.
And so we scorn the codfish,
While the humble hen we prize.
Which only goes to show you
That it pays to advertise."

Denny-
To a really tuff kid I'll never forget.
Remember this year - all the fun. Luck always - Deb

Denny,
To a really tuff kid never forget our Junior year. I wish you the best of luck always,
Karen

Denny,
To a really great tuff kid with a wonderful personality and pleasure of knowing.
Here's to memories we've had and all the times you put a smile on my face. Best of luck always.
Pam

The senior moves on;
Golden ribbons bind his book of memories
As it rests upon the dusty shelf of tomorrow
Awaiting that day
When again he desires to engage in reverie —

Time to Remember

Denny
I missed you this year cause I had no fun in Latin. I missed someone cracken their knuckles stay as sharp as you are and never lose your sense of humor. Don't do anything I would do.
Love ya.
Bonnie Mae.
